About the Tour:

The 2007 (our First Annual) Gourmet Food and Beverage Lover's Tour combines visits to award-winning food and beverage purveyors right here in our own backyard of Northern California. It's your chance to learn about and enjoy some of the local farms, ranches, dairies, orchards, wineries and manufacturing/processing/distribution businesses in the tri Butte-Glenn-Tehama counties. The atmosphere will be light and fun, yet educational – bring your friends and come aboard our big fat party on wheels! We hope this will become an annual event – there are many other gourmet possibilities in our immediate area: beer, rice, walnuts, almonds, honey, chocolate, and a myriad of organic farms, ranches and wineries. Get your taste buds ready for a thrill – this is sure to be a one-of-a-kind and exciting event. Join us with your sense of adventure and passion for learning about wining and dining!

Our first stop will be COFFEE TASTING with AMY LOUIS, Coffee Expert and co-owner of SIX DEGREES COFFEE in Chico. Amy has consulted with Michelin-starred restaurants across the United States, worked with Wolfgang Puck, trained Martha Stewart's staff in Connecticut and New York, and managed coffee programs for top colleges and institutions. She recently completed training to judge national barista competitions. Along with her team at Six Degrees, she distributes specialty coffees, equipment and café-related items throughout California. Always dynamic, she loves educating and inspiring people who share her passion for coffee.

Next stop: Orland. We will tour the dairy, milking and cheese facility and cow-filled pasture at the PEDROZO FAMILY DAIRY followed by FARMSTEAD CHEESE TASTING with TIM PEDROZO & MANDY JOHNSON. Tim is a third-generation dairyman from Merced and along with his wife, son and daughter, Mandy (a graduate of Chico State University) they run the Pedrozo Farm, one of only 10 dairies in California that make farmstead cheeses. The philosophy behind farmstead (or artisan) cheese is similar to that of the slow-food movement – know where your meals are coming from, every step of the way. Pedrozo Dairy makes the Black Butte Reserve cheese sold at the Saturday Chico Farmers' Market, recently awarded a Gold-Medal at the Los Angeles Country Fair.

A light snack will be served in the bus while enjoying the farmland countryside views en route to Vina. There, we will visit the ABBY OF NEW CLAIRVAUX for an exclusive tour of the monastery and the historic and fascinating Sacred Stones Project, followed WINE TASTING with AIMEE SUNSERI, Silver-Award Winning Winemaker at the NEW CLAIRVAUX WINERY. Aimee has been an integral part of New Clairvaux Vineyard since rolling up her sleeves with their first plantings in 2000. After graduating from the University of California at Davis with honors in Viticulture and Enology, she began to prepare for New Clairvaux's first "crush," relying on years of field experience at her family's wineries, Nichelini Winery in St. Helena and Boeger Winery in Placerville. As a fifth generation Californian winemaker, Aimee continues to work for the Nichelini Winery and the sixty-acre vineyard her great-great grandfather and great grandfather planted in the foothills of Saint Helena.

We will end the evening with OLIVE TASTING compliments of JUDD & JUDY CARTER of BELL-CARTER (producers of award-winning LINDSAY OLIVES in Corning) and a GOURMET DINNER prepared by CHEF JAMES TAYLOR at the SICILIAN MARKET & CAFÉ. Chef Taylor is cofounder of the Sicilian Cafe, which began as a small nine-table restaurant serving simple Italian dishes from family recipes passed down through generations. In 1990, the Sicilian Cafe moved to a larger location and evolved to a more formal dinner house with an expanded menu and wine list, recognized by Wine Spectator Magazine for seven years. 2006 brought the addition of the Sicilian Market and Café, co-founded by Chef Taylor and his long time employee & Chef Nathan Johnson. This location features lunch and dinner in a casual setting with some of the favorite dishes from Sicilian Cafe along with classic Italian Paninis, gourmet soups and salads plus a variety of deli case gourmet foods for both take out and enjoying inside. Chef Taylor will be using all local ingredients for tonight's dinner including the coffee, cheese, olives and wines tasted earlier in the day!

Inclusions:

- R/T chauffeured transportation in an air-conditioned coach (pick-up and drop off in the Sicilian Market & Café parking lot – north end – at the corner of Lassen & Cohasset). NOTE: Bus leaves the parking lot at 9:00 prompt – Please don't be late!
